are proud to present:

A special screening of AUSTIN UNBOUND by greensoda productions

“Austin Unbound” documents one Portlander Deaf transgender’s choice to get a double mastectomy. He and his best friend, James, travel from Portland to San Francisco for the surgery. This film follows Austin's life in his local queer ASL community and includes time with his girlfriend, his mother, and sisters.

A discussion with the Portland filmmaker, Eliza Greenwood, follows a screening of a 15-minute short version of “Austin Unbound.”
